Reformed Foundations, Reforming Future:

A Vision for 21st century Anglicans

Church Society Half-Day Conference & AGM 2013

1st June 2013, Oak Hill College
2.00pm - 5.00pm

This year is the 450th anniversary of the issuing in 1563 of the Thirty-nine Articles, the Church of England's confession of faith. We'll celebrate the evangelical foundations of the church, and look ahead to the vital task of continuing to reform it today. A new Council will be elected at the AGM to take forward this work in the coming year.

Speakers and subjects:

2pm: Revd Lee Gatiss, Director of Church Society, will speak on "confessional" Anglicanism, and the usefulness of the 39 Articles.

3pm: A.G.M.

4pm: Revd Dr Peter Adam, former Principal of Ridley College Melbourne, will give us biblical and theological guidance on how to reform the church today.

There will also be a break for refreshments following the A.G.M.

A wide range of books will be on sale at the conference bookstall.
