

News Release

8 July 2009
For immediate release.

Statement from Church Society Council regarding UK FCA.

Following the recent launch of the UK Fellowship of Confessing Anglicans, the Council of Church Society is encouraged to see Anglicans within the UK and elsewhere taking a stand against the destructive forces of theological liberalism and aggressive secularism.

We continue to be committed to working with others on issues of common concern.

Anglicanism is firmly Protestant and Reformed, as expressed by the Church's confessional standard, the 39 Articles of Religion. The Articles commit Anglicans to proclaiming the gospel of salvation by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone and upholding the supreme and final authority of Holy Scripture as God's Word written.

For further information please contact:

Revd David Phillips, General Secretary (01923-235111, mobile 07801-265049) or Mr Duncan Boyd, Council Member (020-7289-6265 mobile 07984 882413)

Church Society exists to uphold biblical teaching and to promote and defend the character of the Church of England as a reformed and national Church. For further information visit www.churchsociety.org